

1 the other. It provides in the first clause that the 2 University of Maryland shall be managed by the Regents
3 in accordance with law. In the next clause, it says,
4 shall have exclusive management. The two clauses them-
5 selves, as I say, are in complete conflict, and the 6 relative role of Legislature and governing body is not 7 clearly spelled out. We all agree that the educational 8 institutions of this State should be given a degree of 9 autonomy as much as possible as a matter of policy. We 10 also agree that the autonomy should not be complete.
11 Now, I think that any statement which carries out those 12 two fundamental desires of everybody here should be a
13 statement that is not a litigation breeder, a statement 14 that is clear and sets out the philosophy, and simply on 15 that ground as well as on the other ground, I think that 16 Mr. Scanlan's draft is a far superior draft to the 17 original language recommended by the Committee in Section 18 3.

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Dr. Bard?

20 DR. BARD: First, let me say that as an educa-
21 tor, I am perfectly delighted with the procedures that
